

Name:

Grade: First

Subject: Economics

1. What are some jobs people have?
2. Why do people work?
3. How does working at a job help a community?

Standard	Unsatisfactory	Partially Proficient	Proficient	Advanced
Geography	Student demonstrates limited understanding that people work at different jobs to produce goods and services and make money.	Student recognizes that people work at different jobs for different reasons.	Student recognizes that people work at different jobs to produce goods and services and make money.	Student recognizes that people work at different jobs to produce goods and services and make money. Student can explain the connection of high demand and low demand on the job market.